British Columbia Director's Report
2021 CSCT AGM, Virtual, March 13, 2021

Greetings fellow CSCT members,

In BC, our AGM originally slated for Abbotsford in May was held virtually via ZOOM on Nov 29, 2020. Turnout was extremely robust with upwards of 230 members attending at peak. We are currently planning our first of three virtual education sessions as nothing was offered in conjunction with the AGM this time around. Discussion surrounding the 2021 AGM scheduled for May have begun. We'll plan to use the same virtual format with hopes of offering a hybrid format going forward.

The BOD bid farewell to our longtime Communications Director, Tay-Jan Mark. Her replacement will be Kimberly Pflieger who brings valuable experience working with the HSA.

The Board will be working on improving member engagement throughout 2021 and are currently formulating initiatives to accomplish that goal. We'll also be engaging the union (HSA) in developing strategies to create Cardiology Technologist positions in the northern sector of the province. Our quest for a regulatory college should get some clarity once recommendations based on 2019's Cayton report hit the floor of the legislature in late spring. Hopefully, we'll get a better idea of timelines at that point. We're optimistic that our path to inclusion will be laid out at this time.

The CTABC BOD will continue to meet virtually every month through July before recessing for the summer. As always, we'll keep on top of developments as they arise.
