

Job description: Cardiology Technologist

Georgian Cardiology Associates

Georgian Cardiology Associates is looking for a dynamic and organized team player to become part of our team as a full-time cardiology technologist.

Responsibilities include:

- Register patients by entering anticipated service date into the patient record; verifying medical history.
- Comforts patients by welcoming them; answering their questions; responding to requests.
- Supports physicians in performing Stress echocardiography, Holter monitoring, ECG, BP monitoring, Graded Stress Testing.
- Documents patient services by completing patient records, forms, reports, logs, and other records.
- Maintains equipment by ensuring that computers and cardiovascular systems and equipment are operating properly; following operating instructions.
- Maintains quality results by evaluating diagnostic studies for quality and diagnoses.
- Maintains safe, secure, and healthy work environment.
- Updates job knowledge by participating in educational opportunities; reading professional publications; maintaining personal networks; participating in professional organizations.

Qualifications, Experience & Requirements:

- Completion of a Canadian Society of Cardiology Technologists recognized Diploma program in Cardiology Technology is a requirement.
- The successful applicant will have current certification with the Canadian Society of Cardiology Technologists and be eligible for membership with the Canadian Society of Cardiology Technologists (CSCT).
- Applicants require excellent written and verbal communication skills combined with excellent patient care with a focus on patient safety.
- Current CPR Certification
- Excellent communication skills are a requirement.
- The successful applicant will be able to manage a busy waiting room and adhere to the clinic standards for the safe performance of tests.
- Able to work independently and as a team member.

Starting rate of pay 28.00-32.00/hour

Moving expenses

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent

Forward your Resume to: aclinch.gca@gmail.com

